BOB NEUWIRTH Look Up (Watermelon) At first you notice Neuwirth's puny vocals—he makes guest Peter Case's scrawny voice sound positively rich. Then you realize that every song is stuck in your mind. A wandering hipster for almost four decades, Neuwirth is one of America's great undiscovered folk-music songwriters. His songs unfold with the inevitability of classics. Along with Case, Patti Smith and Butch Hancock are among the visitors. A
